

CONSENT FOR RECORDING AND PUBLISHING

Students at Melton Specialist School will be involved in school activities where they may be photographed.

Photographs of students may be used in a variety of media to celebrate a student's success in a particular area, for educational purposes or to promote activities at the school.

Photographs of children are also used in newspapers, school newsletters, school brochures, school website, DVDs, school magazine, special displays, school social media pages and other promotional material.

We need parental permission to publish children's photographs. No child's photograph will knowingly be published without parent permission.

Please note this permission form is valid for the duration of your child's schooling at Melton Specialist School; however permission may be withdrawn at any time upon written notification.
